

Milton Chen, Ph.D

Executive Director,
The George Lucas Educational Foundation

Dr. Chen joined The George Lucas Educational Foundation as executive director in 1998, gathering and disseminating the most innovative models of K-12 teaching and learning in the digital age. Before that, he was the founding director of the KQED Center for Education & Lifelong Learning, in San Francisco, and he has been a director of research at the Children's Television Workshop, in New York, and an assistant professor at the Harvard Graduate School of Education. Most recently, Chen has served as a consultant to Children Now, the Educational Development Center, the Foundation for Advancements in Science and Education, and Scholastic.