Sometimes words can change the world. Sylvia 9696s The following quotes offer our own thoughts on what we remember about our memories of the 1960s. Please share your memories and thoughts on what you might have read.

I Have a Dream

Speech from Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in 1963: “I Have a Dream,” delivered on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963.

> ...with this sig... of the moment and to underestimate the determination of the Negro. This sweltering summer of the Negro’s legitimate discontent will not pass until there is an invigorating autumn of freedom and equality...

Spotlight on 1965

Politics of 1965

- President Lyndon B. Johnson proposes a 30% “Schools in the South.”
- Operation Rolling Thunder is launched against targets in North Vietnam.
- The National Foundation for the Arts and Humanities is founded.

Social Movements of 1965

- Immigration Act of 1965 allows more immigrants to enter the U.S.
- Medicare legislation is passed.
- First U.S. combat troops enter South Vietnam.

General Questions:

1. What was your favorite TV series during the 1960s? Why?
2. What was a simple event of your own personal life? How did that influence you?
3. Have you seen your political views change since you were a teenager?
4. What was a major news event of your teen years? How did you feel about it? What influence did it have on your future?
5. What was the world like in 1965 compared to the way it was when you were a teenager? In what ways is it better?
6. What was a major news event of your teen years? How did you feel about it? What influence did it have on your future?
7. What was the world like in 1965 compared to the way it was when you were a teenager? In what ways is it better?
8. Do you remember your dreams (personal, political, social) for the future when you were a teenager?
9. When you were a teenager, what did you think the American dream was going to be like?

Possibilities of the Past

The goals we set today shape the future. Determine a vision of the future you would like to see. Set goals to achieve it. Then share your goals with others.

The Possibilities of Words

Verse from Bob Dylan’s “Like a Rolling Stone,” 1965.

> I don’t know what you can hear or see or touch or eat or hurt or feel, everything is the product of someone’s thoughts.

AFTER THE INTERVIEW:

- After the interview, the interviewer should thank the interviewee for their time and provide feedback on the interview.
- The interviewer may ask if the interviewee has any final thoughts or comments.
- If the interviewee is comfortable, the interviewer may ask if they have any recommendations for future interviews or studies.

Reproducibility:

REPRODUCIBLE 7

STUDENT 8

9.