

Name: _____

A Biography of Comfort

Directions:

A biography is a written story of a person's life. But it does not have to be a boring list of dates and facts. Create a biography for Comfort Snowberger's life and don't forget to include some of the fun and zany things that made Comfort so special.

To get started, answer the questions below then use the information to help you write Comfort's biography.

1. How old was Comfort?

2. Where was Comfort born?

3. What makes Comfort special?

4. How did Comfort make an impact on others lives?

5. What influenced or shaped Comforts life?

6. How was Comfort's life different from other 10 year old girls?

7. Who were the important people in Comfort's life?

8. What challenges did comfort face in her life? What did she learn from these challenges?

Bonus: Write an autobiography of your life don't forget to include some of the interesting stories or information that shaped your life.

This activity is based on Each Little Bird that Sings by Deborah Wiles

Find more activities at <http://teachers.scholastic.com/fairs>. Permission to reproduce is fully granted by Scholastic Inc.