

Name: _____

Squish, Splash, Splat!

Directions:

Onomatopoeia is a word which imitates a noise or action. Author Jan Brett uses this type of sound word in her book The Umbrella. Draw a line to match the object or animal to the sound it makes.

Kinkajou

Plop!

Drops of water falling
from the trees

Blaaht, blaaaaaaaht!

a ripe fig falling into
the umbrella

Drip, drip, drip

Baby tapir

Scratch...scratch...SCRATCH!

All the animals fall out of
the umbrella

Swish! Swish!

Quetzal the bird sails
down onto the handle

KER-SPLASH!

More Onomatopoeia Fun!

1. Select two of the onomatopoeias above and use each of them in a sentence.
2. Think of an object or animal that makes a sound and draw it in the space below. Don't forget to add your sound word.

This activity is based on The Umbrella by Jan Brett

 SCHOLASTIC

Find more activities at <http://teacher.scholastic.com/fairs>. Permission to reproduce is fully granted by Scholastic Inc.