

SCHOLASTIC

News

Nonfiction Readers

Offers in-depth support for content-area instruction.

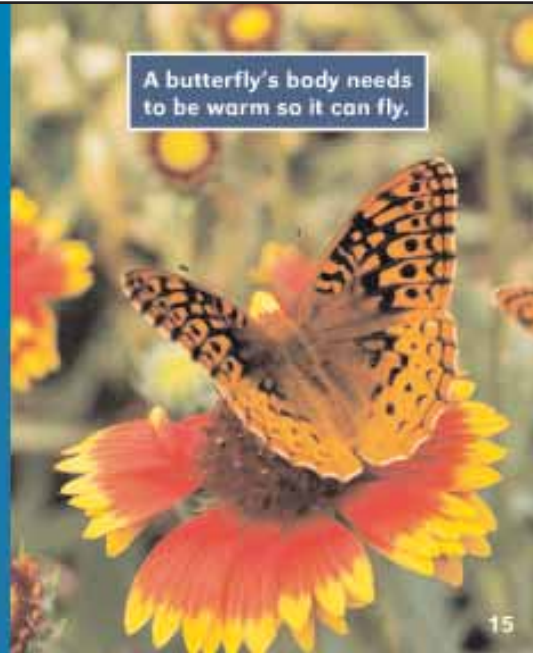

People and animals need the Sun's light and heat to stay alive.

Plants need sunshine to grow. Their green leaves capture the Sun's energy. They use the Sun's energy to make food.

14

A butterfly's body needs to be warm so it can fly.

15

Introduce young readers to a wide range of real world subjects with vivid color photography.