

JUNIOR SCHOLASTIC Grades 6-8

2010-2011 EDITORIAL HIGHLIGHTS

September

Five Years After Hurricane Katrina
The Constitution and You
Rural Life in Central America
John Cabot: Journey to the New World
The Burning of Alexandria's Library
Peer Pressure and Bullying
5 Themes of Geography: Location

October

21st Century Governments in Action
2010-2011 World Affairs Atlas & Almanac
The People of Afghanistan
Early Life on the Euphrates
Theodore Roosevelt's Darkest Journey
Time Management Skills
Reading a Historical Map

November

Economics Laid Bare
The Three Branches of Government
Repression in Myanmar
The Mystery of Blackbeard the Pirate
New England's Smallpox Epidemic
Youth Violence in America

December

Bill of Rights
South America on the Rise
World Religions
Westward Expansion in the 1800s
Juvenile Justice
5 Themes of Geography: Movement

January

2011 U.S. Affairs Annual
America's Greatest Natural Disasters
Sports Mania: Are the Stakes too High?
Slavery: Escape to Freedom
The Quest for Peace in the Middle East
Last Days of the Soviet Empire
U.S. Time Zones

February

New Inventions
Africa: A Continent in Transition
Life in Pre-Revolutionary France
The Civil War and the Tragedy of the South
5 Themes of Geography: Regions

March

How Reality TV Affects Your World
Down Under in Australia
The Ascent of Money
The Triangle Factory Fire, 1911
Going Digital
Map Projections

April

The World's Greenest Countries
Eastern Europe After Communism
Secrets of Ancient China
Japanese-American Internment Camps
Young Citizens Who Make a Difference
5 Themes of Geography: Human-Environment
Interaction

May

Scholastic Art & Writing Awards
Turkey: Between East and West
A History of Food
John Muir and the World of Wilderness
21st Century Careers
Reading a Satellite Map

In order to provide subscribers with the most relevant material, the editors of Junior Scholastic may change editorial content as needed.