

Workshop 3: Long Journey to Justice*Quick Project*Ayize Reacts

Ayize speaks out about Nelson Mandela.

Project: Work with a partner to write a dialogue. Write what Ayize and another character might say on Nelson Mandela's inauguration day.

Procedure*1. Choose the other character.

Who will Ayize talk to about the inauguration? You might choose another character from "Diamond Land" or someone who isn't in the story.

2. Pick a moment.

Decide where and when Ayize has his conversation. For example, it could be just after watching Mandela's speech on television.

3. Role play.

Decide who is going to play each character. Who speaks first? What happens next? Switch parts and role play again.

4. Present your work.

After you and your partner have each played both parts, write your dialogue. Use your favorite lines from your role plays. Set up your dialogue in this format:

Ayize: This is a great day for South Africa.

Zindzi: I hope this means that no more South Africans will suffer the way you did in the mines.

Perform your dialogue for your class or a small group.
