

Your Commitment!

We appreciate your commitment to serve the students in your RIF program. To help you continue fostering literacy and building text-rich environments, we want to share additional resources you can access to support your program's continuation.

Key ways to keep your RIF Program going strong

- Commit to providing at least one book to every child you serve
- Continue to use your local dollars for Scholastic Books
- Align with all private funding options and build key partnerships
- Access Your Title I funding
- Contact your local PTA for program support
