System 44

System 44 was designed for our most challenged struggling readers (those reading at BR–400 Lexile). Intentionally metacognitive, System 44 helps students understand that the English language is a finite system of 44 sounds and 26 letters that can be mastered. The program invites students to unlock this system and join the community of readers.

System 44 includes everything necessary to deliver:

- Research-based instruction in phonemic awareness and phonics.
- Highly motivating and age-appropriate adaptive technology designed specifically for older students, which individualizes instruction according to student needs.
- Validated assessment.

System 44 Software: Explicit, research-based instruction in phonemic awareness and phonics.

Adaptive Software

Direct instruction in the 44 sounds and 26 letters that make up the English language. These lessons focus on individual sound/letter correspondences. Each sound/letter correspondence is taught and supported with visual and audio materials.

These lessons help students master orthographic patterns and word morphology, teaching them to recognize common patterns so that they become more efficient readers of multisyllable words.

*Prices listed in FAMIS supersede all quoted prices.

Students are taught to be automatic with highfrequency words. These lessons focus on the highest utility sight words in the English language.

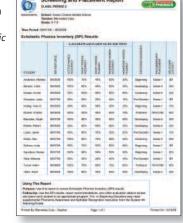

Building upon the skills learned, students are provided with motivational content and opportunities to read lengthier instructional-level text in a scaffolded environment.

Students are placed at the appropriate level in the System 44 software using the new Scholastic Phonics Intervention (SPI), a validated screening assessment.
