By John Cech

An informative pictorial tribute to the leading force in films for children – Weston Woods Studios and its founder, Mort Schindel.

For more than half a century, Weston Woods has been regarded as the leading creative force in the production of films for children. The list of the authors and artists whose works have been transformed from books into films by the studio includes the most significant figures in children's literature – from Robert McCloskey, William Steig, and Maurice Sendak to Margaret Mahy, Simms Taback, Rosemary Wells, and Mo Willems.

In this lush, non-fiction volume – rich with archival photographs, animation cels, historical references, and first-person accounts – readers will get a personal, behind-the-scenes look at the man and creative empire who have garnered nearly every award for distinguished productions in the field of children's media.
