You've selected your advisors and planned your budget. Now, it's time to answer to the people! Imagine you are presenting your plans at a press conference. Write a brief answer to each question from the reporters.

- 2. Think about the category to which you gave the most budget funding. Why did you choose this as your No. 1 design priority?

- 3. Think about the category to which you gave the least budget funding. Why did you choose this as your lowest design priority?
