

What Should Happen At The World Trade Center Site?

Sixteen acres of leveled land now sit at the spot where the Twin Towers once reached into the sky. If it were up to you, what would you do with this location? Use the guidelines below to outline your plans, then draw your plans at the bottom of the page.

Some Manhattan residents would like to see the World Trade Center site turned into a much-needed shopping and business hub. Others say the entire site should remain a memorial to those who died. What do you think? Look at this list of possible World Trade Center site elements. Rank them in their order of importance to you. If you feel that an element does not belong at the site, cross it off the list.

Business offices

Eternal flame

List of terror victims' names

Memorial garden

Memorial sculpture

Museum dedicated to 9/11

Open space

Shopping & restaurants

Other: _____

Keeping in mind your list of elements for the site, imagine what you'd like the future site to look like. Sketch part or all of your plans in the space below.

A large empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for the student to draw their plans for the World Trade Center site. The box is positioned to the right of the text box containing the drawing instructions.