

Issue: 9/11

Phase 4: Read the Papers

How might the newspapers report on your plans for the WTC site? Finish this article to find out! Follow the instructions in parentheses to fill in the blanks in the news story.

NEW YORK PRESS DISPATCH

VOL. CXXXI

NEW YORK, NEWYORK

"WE GET ALL THE NEWS"

Headline: (Write a title that sums up the news story.)

During a noontime press conference, the Mayor presented the finalized design for the World Trade Center site to residents of New York City.

The Mayor began the speech by briefly outlining some design priorities.

“_____”

_____,” the Mayor said.

(Use all or part of your answer to Phase 3, question 2, to fill in the blank.)

The Mayor’s design called for _____% to fund office buildings, _____% to support housing, _____% to be spent on a memorial, _____% to finance stores, and _____% to fund parks. (Use your percentages from Phase 2 to fill in the blanks.)

The Mayor explained why less space was dedicated to particular design priorities.

“_____”

_____,” the Mayor said.

(Use all or part of your answer to Phase 3, question 3, to fill in the blank.)

At the close of the press conference, the Mayor thanked the WTC site advisors. They are

_____, _____, and

_____. (Use your advisors from Phase 1 to fill in the blanks.)

“_____”

_____,” the Mayor said.

(Use all or part of your answer to Phase 3, question 1, to fill in the blank.)