

ROLE-PLAY SCENARIO

#9

What to Do:

1. Read through the scenario below with your group.
2. Decide who will play the roles of the characters in the scenario.
3. Role play (act out) the scenario. Members of your group should decide what they think the best choice is.
4. What are the consequences of that choice for each character? Be ready to explain why you think the choice your group made is the best one.

You find out that a new kid in class, James, is not a native speaker of English, and keeps very quiet because of it. You tell this to a couple of other people in class. Now, whenever they see James, they make fun by pretending they don't know how to speak English. You ...

Choice A: Ignore them and tell James to ignore them.

Choice B: Occasionally join with them because you never thought about it before.

Choice C: Ask James if he is bothered by their response and talk to the others about it.

Choice D: Let it go because it doesn't really affect you.

Choice E: Another idea?
