

FAMILY REPRODUCIBLE

DEAR FAMILY MEMBER:

Your child is participating in the One World: Connecting Communities, Cultures, and Classrooms program in school.

As part of this program, your child has been studying lessons in social studies, language arts, and life skills on such topics as identity, community, global understanding, respecting diversity, recognizing stereotypes, and making thoughtful choices. In addition to these lessons, your child will be writing in a Student Journey Book and will be exploring literary excerpts and answering critical-thinking questions.

Please support your child's learning by reading the Student Journey Book with him or her, and by talking about the topics within. Together you will have an opportunity to share great understanding and learning about themes that are important to your child's future.

You can find free copies of all materials, as well as additional on-line interactive challenges for kids, at <http://scholastic.com/oneworld>. Please use these wonderful resources and tools to help your child learn about and make sense of the world.

Sincerely,

National Football League

Scholastic Inc.

Facing History and Ourselves

Created and funded by the National Football League, and developed in conjunction with Scholastic Inc. and Facing History and Ourselves, the One World program helps young people appreciate diversity and was created to ensure that the legacy of September 11th is one of unity and understanding, and not one of prejudice and mistrust.

Photo Credit: © Dennie Cody/Taxi/Getty Images.