Parts of Speech

Write your own story about Jason and Nika.

Nouns, verbs, and adjectives are different kinds of words.

A noun is the name of a person, place, thing, or idea: Cody, America, shoe, and craziness are all nouns.

A verb is an action word: Jump, listen, and swim are examples of verbs.

An adjective is a word that describes a noun: Cute, handsome, and quick are adjectives.

Check out the nouns, verbs, and adjectives in the Word Bank below. Choose the right kind of word to fill in each blank in the passage and make up your own story about what happens after Nika leaves the store. Your story can be serious or silly. Have fun!
