

Name: _____

Snowflake Symmetry

Most snowflakes are symmetrical (si-met-ruh-kuhl). That means if you draw a line down the middle, one half will match the other. First, cross out the snowflakes that are not symmetrical.

Now, cut out the snowflake halves. Paste each one next to the matching half to make a symmetrical snowflake.

