

Name: _____

Types of Twisters

Read the chart to learn about three types of storms: tornadoes, waterspouts, and dust devils.

What is it called?	What is it?	Where does it happen?
TORNADO	A spinning funnel of air that touches the ground	On land
WATERSPOUT	A spinning funnel of air that forms over water	On oceans and lakes
DUST DEVIL	A small whirlwind that picks up dust and sand	In deserts

1. What do you call a spinning funnel of air that touches the ground?

- tornado waterspout dust devil

2. What do you call a spinning funnel that forms over water?

- tornado waterspout dust devil

3. Which storm is most likely to happen in a desert?

- tornado waterspout dust devil

4. Where would you most likely see a waterspout form?

- over the ocean over a mountain on land

How do you think waterspouts got their name?
