

Name: _____

The 5 W's Wheel

Readers and writers use the 5 W's to organize the facts of a story. What are the 5 W's?

Who? tells who the story is about.

What? explains what event the story is covering.

When? tells when the event happened.

Where? tells where the event took place.

Why? explains why the event happened.

Read the story "On the Job." Use it to fill in the 5W's wheel below.

