

Name _____ Date _____

Class/Teacher _____

Think It Through

Use the stories in this week's issue of Scholastic News to answer the questions below. Write your answers on the lines provided.

1. Do you think cursive writing should still be taught at school? Why or why not?

---

---

---

2. Presidents' Day is a holiday that honors U.S. Presidents. If you could create a holiday to honor anyone in America's past or present, who would be honored and why?

---

---

---

3. Scientists recently discovered a pink iguana. What is your favorite animal species? If you could create that species in any color, what would it be?

---

---

---

4. If President Abraham Lincoln were living today, what do you think he would be doing?

---

---

---

5. Abraham Lincoln is often remembered for keeping our nation together during the Civil War. If you were President, what would you want to accomplish and be remembered for?

---

---