Citizenship Test

Each year, more than 700,000 immigrants become U.S. citizens. To do so, they must first pass an oral exam. The applicants are asked 10 civics (history and government) questions. To pass, the applicant must answer at least 6 of those 10 questions correctly. Below is a sample of questions that could appear on the citizenship test. Try answering them, and see if you have what it takes to earn U.S. citizenship.

1. What do we call the first 10 Amendments to the Constitution?

2. Name one branch or part of the federal government.

3. What are the two parts of the U.S. Congress?

4. In what month do we have a general election for President?

5. What is the name of the Vice President of the United States?

6. What are the two major political parties in the United States?

7. Name the U.S. war between the North and the South.

8. What did the Emancipation Proclamation do?

9. Name one state that borders Canada.

10. Why does the U.S. flag have 50 stars?
