Think It Through

Use the stories in this week's issue of Scholastic News to answer the questions below. Write your answers on the lines provided.

1. Do you think U.S. students should have longer school days? Why or why not?

2. Orange is not the only English word that does not rhyme with any other in the language. Can you think of any others? (Hint: One of the words is also a color.)

3. R.L. Stine books tend to be pretty scary! Do you like scary stories? What is your favorite kind of story to read? Why?

4. What are three ways everyone can reduce fossil-fuel emissions?

5. The Olympics brings together the best athletes to compete from countries all over the world. Would you like to compete in the Olympics? What is your favorite Olympic sport? Why?
