Think It Through

Use the stories in this week's issue of Scholastic News to answer the questions below.
Write your answers on the lines provided.

1. What is one issue in society that you care about? If you could name the year 2009 after that issue, what would you call it?

2. If you could bury something to be uncovered thousands of years later, what would it be? Why?

3. What toy would you create that you think would stay popular for 40 or more years? Why would that toy stay popular?

4. Do you think the United States would be different if there were no Bill of Rights? Why or why not?

5. What amendments would you make to the U.S. Constitution? Why?
