What Did I Learn?

In "Money Matters," you read about the "four uses of money" and how some kids are learning how to make good financial decisions. Think about how you use money. Using the chart below, brainstorm ideas for putting money to work in your life.

How do I currently use money in my life?  Example: I buy snacks. _____ _____ _____	What are ways in which I could better use my money?  Example: I could save more of my money. _____ _____ _____
What can I do with my money?  Example: I can buy the things that I want. _____ _____ _____	How can I apply what I learned about the four uses of money to my everyday life?  Example: I can make a budget and stick to it. _____ _____ _____
Whom or what could I help if I donated some of my money?  Example: An animal shelter. _____ _____ _____	Where can I go to learn more about investing my money?  Example: I can go to the local library. _____ _____ _____

Writing Prompt: Have you ever donated money to a cause, or has someone ever donated money to you or to your community? How did that make you feel? On a separate piece of paper, write a paragraph about the experience.
