

Name _____ Date _____

Class/Teacher _____

What's the Big Idea?

How well do you understand what you've just read?
Test yourself with these reading-comprehension questions.

1. After reading the headline, what should you expect to learn from this article?

2. What is the fifth paragraph of this article mainly about?

3. Which sentence(s) explain(s) how food can affect health?

4. What type of passage is this: fictional, narrative, persuasive, or expository?

5. Based on information in the story, the reader can tell that working in the White House garden affected Cierra and David in what ways?
