Changing Faces

Presidents and other important people appear on U.S. money. For example, Abraham Lincoln appears on the penny and the $5 bill. The back of the penny is being redesigned. U.S. coins usually feature a person's picture on the front and something related to the person's life on the back. What important person would you put on a U.S. coin? Research the person you choose, then answer the questions that appear beneath the coin. When you are done, design the front and back of the coin.

1. What was the birthplace of the person you selected?

2. What major accomplishment or contribution has this person made to the U.S.?

3. What characteristics does this person have that make him or her a leader?

4. How have other people viewed this person over the years?

5. Why should this person appear on a U.S. coin?

6. Write a persuasive speech to support why you think the person you chose should be on a U.S. coin. Deliver your speech to the class.
