

Article: "Robert's Sudden Stardom" • Issue: February 16, 2009

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Robert's Sudden Stardom Quiz

Directions: After you read the article "Robert's Sudden Stardom," answer each of the following questions.

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Which country does Robert Pattinson call home?                 (A) Spain                 (B) United States of America                 (C) Canada                 (D) England                                                                                                                   | 2. Who did Robert Pattinson play in the Harry Potter films?                 (A) Percy Weasley                 (B) Cedric Diggory                 (C) Neville Longbottom                 (D) Dean Thomas                                                           | 3. Who does Robert Pattinson use as an example for how to handle fame?                 (A) his co-star Kristin Stewart                 (B) Leonardo DiCaprio                 (C) the stars of the Harry Potter films                 (D) Miley Cyrus                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 4. What does Robert Pattinson say is in his heart?                 (A) London                 (B) playing a vampire                 (C) being an actor                 (D) action movies                                                                                                          | 5. How do you think Robert Pattinson feels about appearing before so many screaming fans?                 (A) indifferent                 (B) excited                 (C) nervous                 (D) flattered                                                   | 6. Which of the following sentences uses quotation marks properly?                 (A) "I agree with them, he says."                 (B) "Every single time, he says, I got so nervous, and I got cold sweats."                 (C) "She doesn't back down to people", Robert says.                 (D) "I see how the Harry Potter people have dealt with fame," says Robert, "and they're still very, very normal and sane." |
| 7. Which of the words below best replaces the word intrigues in the following sentence: They have a dark secret, which is lethal and also intrigues people.                 (A) attaches                 (B) captivates                 (C) tricks                 (D) bores | 8. What is the cause for the effect of Robert Pattinson breaking into cold sweats?                 (A) having to play baseball                 (B) having to fly                 (C) fans screaming to see him                 (D) all of the above | 9. Who does Robert Pattinson play in the movie Twilight? What kind of character is he?                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                                                                                                   |
| 10. Why didn't Robert Pattinson want to audition for the lead role in Twilight?                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |