Goodbye, My Love!

In the play Wuthering Heights, Catherine and Heathcliff don't have much time to express their feelings and regrets before Catherine dies. In this activity, you will write a scene in which Heathcliff and Catherine have a proper goodbye. Perhaps they explain some of their past behavior or admit their true feelings.

Because it's a play, the characters' ideas, feelings, and actions should be expressed through dialogue. Dialogue is the conversation between the characters. You may include one narrator in addition to Heathcliff and Catherine. Use the back of this page or a separate piece of paper if necessary.

Writing Dialogue:

1. Follow the format used in Scope to write the dialogue.
2. Make the dialogue realistic. (Reading out loud is a good way to tell if the conversation seems believable.)
3. Consider how Heathcliff and Catherine talk.
