

Article: Sunrise Over Fallujah • Issue: September 1, 2008

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Analyzing Robin

How do you figure out what a fictional character is like? You pay attention to what the character says or does, and how others react to him or her. This will give you clues about the character's personality.

Directions: After reading the excerpt from Sunrise Over Fallujah, describe Robin by listing some of his character traits. Use examples from the excerpt to support your thoughts.

1. List words and phrases that describe Robin's character.

2. Choose three words or phrases from your list and plug them into the sentences below. For each one, provide two supporting examples from the text.

I think Robin is _____ because _____

I think Robin is _____ because _____

I think Robin is _____ because _____
