Character Map

Available as a PDF at scholastic.com/scope

A character map can help you analyze a character. Use the graphic organizer below to explore the character Tony Stark (the protagonist of Iron Man) or a character from anything else you read in this issue.
