

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

All in Agreement!

Available
as a PDF at scholastic.com/scope

In a sentence, subjects and verbs must agree. If a subject is singular, the verb must be singular. If the subject is plural, the verb must be plural too.

Directions: Circle the correct verb in the sentences below. Don't let the prepositional phrases fool you!

1. The video games I bought yesterday don't/doesn't seem to work properly.
2. In order to win the game, our strategy need/needs tweaking.
3. Some parts of your article require/requires revision.
4. All of the tables is/are finished.
5. One of the paintings is/are flawed.
6. The number of ants in the farm is/are 47.
7. Members of Congress is/are hard at work debating the new bill.
8. The nurses in the clinic deserve/deserves praise.
9. The puppies in Mrs. Ringer's doggie daycare has/have so much energy.
10. The basketball players on the junior varsity team inspire/inspires the whole school.
11. The traffic lights on Ming Avenue seem/seems to be broken.
12. Every senior at my high school hope/hopes this year's graduation will be the best ever.
13. All of the dancers in the show say/says their feet hurt after a performance.
14. The roof has/have a leak.
15. The public swimming pools in my hometown is/are being renovated.
16. Zora and all of her friends plan/plans to work on the school newspaper this semester.
17. Corey, with the help of his neighbors, intend/intends to start a community garden downtown.
18. The costumes in the theater's basement cost/costs a lot of money.
19. Neither of the books I wanted is/are in stock.
20. My parents' kitten is/are really cute.