

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Be a Spelling Stickler

Available as a PDF at scholastic.com/scope

There is one misspelled word in each of the following sentences. These words are among the most commonly misspelled words in the English language! Circle and correct them all. We did the first one for you.

Apparently

1. (Apparently), all of Erin's friends forgot her sixteenth birthday.
2. No won at school said a word to her all day.
3. After school, Erin sat alone in her room feeling miserable untill her mom knocked on the door.
4. She handed Erin a wierd letter.
5. Erin recognized the handwriting; it belonged to her best freind, Maria.
6. All this time, Erin thought Maria was still mad over an arguement they had earlier in the week.
7. The note said: "Use that driver's lisenca you earned this morning and meet me at Café Med!"
8. Erin smiled as she put her keys in the ignition; at least their was one person who cared about her!
9. Café Med is the coolest restuarant in Detroit.
10. Its practically impossible to get a reservation there.
11. When Erin arrived, 50 people jumped out of cars, cheered, and honked there horns.
12. Erin was so surprised, she could hardly beleive what was happening!
13. Her friends reserved a seperate room in the restaurant and decorated it with balloons.
14. The general concensus is that Café Med's steak is the best ever.
15. It really does excede all expectations.
16. The attention embarassed Erin a little.
17. The best part of the hole evening was when everyone said what they love most about Erin.
18. Erin also recieved the biggest chocolate cake she'd ever seen.
19. She felt greatful for being blessed with such wonderful people in her life.
20. It was defintly a birthday to remember!