

Article: "Miley Mania" • Issue: November 10-24, 2008

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Miley Mania Quiz

Directions: After you read the article "Miley Mania," answer each of the following questions.

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. What is Miley's birth name?                 (A) Miley Ray Cyrus                 (B) Hannah Montana                 (C) Miley Hope Stewart                 (D) Destiny Hope Cyrus                                                                                                                        | 5. Which word could best replace the word prolific in the following sentence: Songwriting is just the start for this prolific pop princess.                 (A) talented                 (B) productive                 (C) fortunate                 (D) successful               | 9. Miley gets into the writing mind-set by avoiding distractions. How do you get into the writing mind-set?                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                        |
| 2. What does Miley say she wants to do for the rest of her life?                 (A) be a singer                 (B) be an actor                 (C) be a songwriter                 (D) be a novelist                                                                                                     | 6. Hannah Montana is to Miley Cyrus as Sean Anderson is to whom?                 (A) Jules Verne                 (B) Josh Hutcherson                 (C) Jake T. Austin                 (D) Billy Ray Cyrus                                                                                                  | 10. Imagine that you get to write an article about Miley for a magazine. Make a list of questions you'd ask during your interview.                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____                 _____ |
| 3. As a role model to teens and young girls, what message does Miley hope her fans learn from her?                 (A) Commercial success is important.                 (B) Don't compare yourself to others.                 (C) It's OK to make mistakes.                 (D) both B and C               | 7. Which words best summarize Miley's career?                 (A) fun, monotonous, blissful                 (B) successful, hectic, challenging                 (C) relaxing, amusing, frustrating                 (D) tiresome, confusing, difficult                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 4. Which of the following statements is an opinion?                 (A) Miley Cyrus is a talented pop princess.                 (B) This year, Miley hosted the Teen Choice Awards.                 (C) Miley loves to write.                 (D) Miley says that life's little mess-ups can be wonderful. | 8. Which of the following is a fact?                 (A) Miley wrote 8 of the 12 tracks on her album.                 (B) Growing up with a famous father prepared Miley for life in front of a camera.                 (C) Miley played the voice of Penny in Bolt.                 (D) both A and C |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |