

A Site to See

Use these questions to explore and evaluate a new Web site. A teacher or parent should approve a site before you visit it.

1. Who created this Web site? (It might be a group, a government agency, or an individual, for example.)

---

---

2. When was the site last updated? (You can usually find an update statement on the home page.)

---

---

3. What is the main goal or purpose of the Web site? (If the goal is not stated, you can guess the goal from the kinds of information posted on the site.)

---

---

4. What are three new things you learned from this site?

---

---

---

5. What is the most exciting or interesting feature of the site?

---

---

6. Would you recommend this site to a friend? Why or why not?
