

Stereotype Poem

1. Name of first group member: _____
What do people think about you before they get to know you?

2. Name of second group member: _____
What do people think about you before they get to know you?

3. Name of third group member: _____
What do people think about you before they get to know you?

4. Name of fourth group member: _____
What do people think about you before they get to know you?

NOW: Put together a poem where each group member will say a part of it out loud. The poem should be based on these ideas. If you want, you can call the poem, "People Think" and use that as a line that you repeat throughout the poem.
