Mystery Noun

Use the interesting facts written in bold print throughout the book and the "More Facts About Venice" section in the back of the book to figure out what is the mystery noun.

1. I am the "mystery noun" that is dank, airless and filled with rats.

2. I am the "mystery noun" which needs several conditions present at the same time to occur. I am a disaster!

3. I am the "mystery noun" that has been a type of transportation gliding along the waterways of Venice for over a thousand years.

4. I am the "mystery noun" that is represented all over the city in paintings and sculptures. I stand for strength on land and sea.

5. I am the "mystery noun" that is one of the most beautiful towers in the world.

6. I am the "mystery noun" that is Neptune's three-pronged fish spear.

7. I am the "mystery noun" that is on top of the tallest building in Venice. I once helped sailors by showing them which way the wind was blowing.

8. I am the "mystery noun" that was the profession of Tiepolo. There were several world-famous men like me in Italy. The tools of these men were brushes and canvas.
