

Name: _____

A Dream for All

Directions:

In the book, This is the Dream, the writers and illustrator give a powerful story of the civil rights movement. Answer the following questions to test your understanding of this book. Circle the best answer.

1. Before equality was established there would be two water fountains in public buildings because:
  - A. One was for sick people and one was for well people.
  - B. African Americans were not allowed to use the same fountain as white people.
  - C. One fountain had cold water and one had hot water.
2. Before the civil rights movement, “separate but equal” was a way of life. Which statement best describes what that really meant?
  - A. As long as African Americans had a classroom, it was okay that it was separate for white children.
  - B. African Americans had the same number of books in their school libraries as white schools did.
  - C. African Americans could choose to sit anywhere they wanted to on the bus.
3. Because African Americans could not choose their own seat on the bus, they chose instead to :
  - A. take their cars
  - B. take the train
  - C. walk
4. Civil rights leaders demanded many things to make the dream of equality come true. Which of the following is a demand that they made?
  - A. Fair-paying jobs
  - B. A good education
  - C. Both A and B
5. Which of the following happened after the civil rights movement?
  - A. People of all races go to school together.
  - B. African Americans can only eat at the counter.
  - C. There is no more bus service.
6. The changes that came with the civil rights movement were accomplished:
  - A. by the use of force
  - B. without violence
  - C. very quickly

This activity is This is the Dream by Diane Z. Shore and Jessica Alexander

Find more activities at <http://teacher.scholastic.com/fairs>. Permission to reproduce is fully granted by Scholastic Inc.