Change the Trajectory. Engage the Disengaged.

Engage readers and improve achievement with Scholastic's literary fiction and nonfiction programs.

Scholastic's supplemental ELA programs On the Record and ID provide increasingly complex texts on a continuum of engaging topics and themes.

These innovative programs meet the needs of middle school/high school students and can be flexibly integrated into ELA strategies and curricula for grades 6-12, depending on classroom needs.

Used together, On the Record and ID provide a continuum of increasingly challenging inquiry-based lessons designed to give students an upper hand in building core skills and competencies. Students will:

- Build skills in close reading, comprehension, analysis and critical thinking
- Evaluate, analyze and cite evidence
- Demonstrate independence in reading and writing
- Build strong, wide-ranging content knowledge
- Respond to varying demands of audience, task, purpose and discipline
- Comprehend and critique
