SCHOLASTIC LITERACY PARTNERSHIPS

Scholastic Literacy Partnerships is committed to supporting the efforts of community-based organizations, foundations, and public libraries in our shared goal of engaging families and empowering communities to become literacy advocates for children. With take-home book packs, activities for children, literacy workshops, and events for families, we can help build the capacity of your community. Whether your organization focuses on literacy, diversity, or accessibility, our equity-driven solutions will support your work by strengthening the bridge between families and communities. We welcome the opportunity to work with you to ensure that all children have access to high-quality home libraries, build a lifelong love of reading, and find their voice to transform our culture.

Giving book-focused gifts connects children and families to more literacy opportunities. Make a book your hook!

We support you!

Whatever your focus is, we can partner with your organization to create learning moments and literacy interactions for the whole community in places like:

- Animal shelters
- Barbershops and salons
- Community centers
- Doctors' offices
- Family courts
- Food pantries
- Health and wellness centers
- Laundromats
- Military bases
- Parks and recreation areas
- Social service agencies
- Supermarkets
- Waiting rooms

There are many opportunities to connect with families and children!

Here are some ideas for presenting families with books to build their home libraries and create literacy-rich environments at home and in the community.

- Author visits
- Book clubs
- Family-teacher meetings
- Family literacy nights
- Movie night read-alongs
- Read-aloud events
- Reading challenges
- STEAM nights
- International/cultural celebrations
- Winter, spring, or summer break
- One Book One School/reading program
- National Hispanic Heritage Month
- 1000 Books Before Kindergarten or kindergarten readiness
