

The Reading Pledge

-  I pledge to have respect for myself, for others and for the power of books.
-  I am proud and excited to be part of the community of Read For 2003.
-  I will make books a part of my life.
-  I will read them to grow.
-  I will read them to learn more about myself and about other people.
-  I will share the things that I learn from books with others.
-  I pledge to be a reader now and forever.
